

in 1954 Althea Singletary was born in Akron, Ohio on a cool fall morning. She was given the affectionate name of "Tootie" which many have come to know and love.

At a very young age she watched attentively as her Grand Mother, Mother and many Aunts cleaned Chitterlings for the entire family for special holidays and occasions.

At the age of 10 she finally got her chance to clean her first bucket of Chitterlings and was told if you only clean a half bucket you make sure that it's truly clean. "It's not how fast you are it's how loving and careful you are" she was told.

In 1989 the family opened the Bar B-Q Boss restaurant to share the special dish with those who trusted her care and dedication for putting out a great product.

Aunt Tootie, as she is called has served thousands of customers who have shared this dish with many family and friends.

Cooking Directions

Microwave: (For best results, thaw under refrigeration for two hours prior to cooking)

1. Remove tray from box, pierce the film, and place it in the microwave.
2. Heat on HIGH for 5 minutes or until internal temperature reaches 180°F. Remove from microwave and let stand for 2 minutes.
3. Carefully peel back the film and serve; in our tray or on your plate.

Conventional Stove Top:

1. Remove tray from box, peel back the film, and place contents of the tray in a stove top safe pot.
2. Add one cup of water for every pound of product.
3. Bring product to a boil and continue cooking for 5 minutes or until internal temperature reaches 180°F. Let stand for 2 minutes. Serve.

This product must be cooked prior to eating. Heating times are approximate as appliances may vary.
